

St. Ann's Hospice and Stockport Foundation Trust Specialist Palliative Care Conference

Tuesday, 17th May 2022– virtual event

Overview

The 4th St. Ann's Hospice/ Stockport Foundation Trust Conference will focus on diverse aspects of palliative and end of life care in the digital age.

Intended Audience

The course is designed for palliative and end of life care and hospice professionals and will also be of interest for health and social care practitioners from any care setting supporting individuals with life limiting conditions.

What to expect

- Digital legacy for patients and families
- Impact of technology in clinical practice and training
- Social media in palliative care
- Impact of future digital transformation on our clinical care and services

Fee

£50– Early Bird until 31st March 2022

£60– General admission

Join in the conversation and Tweet
#SAHConf2022

Register

<https://sahconf2022.eventbrite.co.uk>

This conference has been organised and facilitated by The Christie School of Oncology.

SCAN QR CODE
TO SECURE
YOUR PLACE

GET IN TOUCH

Wilmslow Road, Manchester, M20 4BX
the-christie.educationevents@nhs.net
0161 918 7409

FOLLOW US

The Christie
School of Oncology

St. Ann's Hospice and Stockport Foundation Trust Specialist Palliative Care Conference

09.00 - 09.15 Registration

09.15 Welcome and Introduction– Dr Dave Waterman, Consultant in Palliative Medicine Stockport Foundation Trust and Medical Director at St. Ann's Hospice

Keynote Speaker

09:30 Death in the Digital Age- Professor Elaine Kasket, Author and Honorary Professor of Psychology, University of Wolverhampton

10.30 - 10.45 Break

10.45 Project ECHO – Sharing Knowledge and Expertise- Professor Max Watson, Hospice UK

11.30 Technology in Palliative Care- Dr Ami Nwosu, Consultant in Palliative Medicine, Lancaster University

12.00 Future Digital Developments – Regionally/ Nationally– Dr Saif Ahamed, GP and Health Innovation Manchester Digital Clinical Lead

12.30 - 13.15 Lunch

13.15 Digital Legacies – 1st Next Steps- James Norris, Digital Legacy Association

14.00 Real Talk: evidenced-based online resources for communication skills training in palliative, end of life care, and bereavement support - Dr Marco Pino, Lecturer in Communication and Social Interaction at Loughborough University

14.45 - 14.55 Break

14.55 Twitter and Specialist Palliative Care- Ruth Perez– Merino, Stockport End of Life Care Educator

15.15 Supercharge your social media powers and be a healthcare hero– Dr Paul Jarvis, Director of Business Development and Claire Briscoe, Head of Communications St. Ann's Hospice

15.35 Education and Training on-line– Dr Karen Groves, Consultant in Palliative Medicine, Queenscourt Hospice

16.00 Technology and Media in the Homeless Community – Niamh Brophy – Homeless Palliative Care Co-ordinator, St. Ann's Hospice

16.20 Summary and Close