Structure & Representation of the Forum

- Agreed that the forum would consist of the 12 local councillors, 4 resident representatives (1 from each ward) and an executive representative of the Christie.
- Further organisation and hospital management would attend in line with individual agenda items. MCRC representatives would attend for relevant items.
- Agreed that future meetings would be chaired by Cllr Simcock.
- Agreed that for the next 6 months meetings would be monthly (excluding August), 3rd Tuesday of the month at 6pm to 7pm.
- Agreed that the Forum would consider a programme of items at future meetings which would include: Withington Green, Green Travel Plan, Section 106 Parking Agreement, Future Developments on the site and issues arising out of the demolition and construction of the current development.
- The next meeting would receive a report from a sub group consisting of councillors and up to 6 local residents which will meet the landscape architects to discuss the future of Withington Green. The discussion will take as its starting point the decisions regarding the Green made by the Planning Committee.
- Agreed future agenda would be set in agreement with the chair.
