Clinical oncology

Information about your referral to The Christie

You have been referred from the team at your local hospital to see one of the doctors at The Christie.

The Christie doctors have clinics in a number of other hospitals around Greater Manchester and Cheshire as well as at The Christie.

Where possible we will arrange for you to be seen in a clinic at your local hospital closer to home. Sometimes this is not possible because you might need specialist treatments or because there is not a clinic appointment available locally within a reasonable period of time. In this case you may be offered an appointment at The Christie or another hospital in Greater Manchester or Cheshire.

Please be assured that, at whichever hospital you are offered an appointment, you will still be meeting with a Christie doctor who is an expert in your type of cancer and treatment needed.

You may have already had some contact with your local clinical nurse specialist. If you have any questions about this please contact them directly.
