

UKONS Young Cancer/Early Career Nurses Educational Event

Wednesday 13 October 2021, 4.00 - 7.00pm, via livestream

Overview

UKONS are organising a virtual educational event kindly hosted by The Christie School of Oncology, which is offered to all Young Cancer/Early Career Nurses. Our aim is to build a network of support and provide free educational events to guide nurses who are beginning their career in cancer care.

Intended Audience

The event is particularly aimed at nurses under the age of 35 and/or within the first five years of their career, working in cancer care.

What to expect

- The event will focus on areas of interest to YC/ECNs around the theme of 'Connecting with the future'.
- All delegates will receive a certificate of attendance
- By registering for this event, you will have access to the content on-demand for 30 days

Fee
